"I AM THE WAY, THE TRUTH, AND THE LIFE."

VOLUME XIX.

ASHLAND, O., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 30, 1897.

No. 24.

Editorial.

THE Union Meetings held in different counties in Indiana are productive of much good. We urge the importance of such meetings being held wherever practicable.

ALL orders for Sunday-school literature to date have been filled. We have exercised great care in filling these orders and trust that schools everywhere have received their literature.

THE letter from Chicago by Brother McFaden, published in this issue, is full of good things. These letters are always interesting, but this one is especially so. One accession by baptism is reported.

THE program of the S. S. C. E. for National Conference will be published next week and we greatly wish that we could announce the publication of the other two programs also, both for the conference proper and for the Young People's Society.

BROTHER J. Allen Miller and wife have returned home from their school work in Hiram College. They are welcome visitors here. Brother Miller preached in the College chapel Sabbath morning and evening. He has not forgotten "how it is done."

SEVERAL persons have taken advantage of our very liberal offer on page sixteen and sent us new subscribers. These are entitled to the premiums we offer for such service and thus far all have been supplied. Is there an easier way to earn five standard books than the one we offer?

THE K. C. Topic for Sunday evening, July 11, affords an excellent opportunity to awaken the missionary spirit among our young people. As a help to the leader and the class we publish in connection with the notes on the topic a number of very suggestive missionary items. Preserve this paper. You will need it on the evening of July 11. Let there be a special preparation for this service; we also suggest a collection for the Chicago and Washington Missions at this meeting.

IN an article entitled "Prayer," by Brother Mast, Cornell, Ill., we made the author say "my prayers" instead of "many prayers." Brother Mast is too modest a man to have made use of the former expression in the connection in which it appears.

Low-Rate Excursion to Atlantic City, N. J., via the Baltimore & Ohio R. R.

IN order to give its patrons an opportunity to visit the Seashore at a nominal cost, the Baltimore & Ohio R. R. will run a low-rate excursion to Atlantic City, N. J., on Thursday, July 22.

Atlantic City has acquired such fame as a summer resort that a description of its varied attractions is superfluous. Thousands are annually attracted to this delightful resort for the enjoyment of magnificent surf bathing, and to avail themselves of the unequalled opportunities for sailing, fishing, etc.

A promenade along the famous "board walk" (an elevated platform skirting the shore for many miles) will alone repay the tourist for the trip.

Persons who are contemplating a trip to the Seashore to spend their vacation should not fail to embrace this opportunity to visit the most charming of the many resorts on the Atlantic Coast.

Tickets will be available on all regular trains, and will be good for return twelve days, including date of sale, thus giving ample time for an enjoyable outing. Stop-off will be allowed at Washington D. C., on the return trip within the limit of ticket.

Any further information will be given upon application to nearest B. & O. ticket agent, or B. N. Austin, Gen'l Pass'r Agent, Chicago.

WE are in receipt of a number of papers read at the Union Meeting recently held at Mexico, Ind. As a rule these papers treat practical subjects in a practical way, and we gladly give space in the paper for them. Of course we can not publish more than one at a time.

BROTHER W. M. LYON makes a very timely suggestion in his letter from Washington, D. C. We were not aware of the fact that Dr. Shaver had a paper prepared or we should have insisted on having it read even tho not a member of that conference. Doctor, why not send your paper to this office? We will find a place for it. We are looking for just such papers. Let us have it.

THE Executive Committee of the National Conference should prepare the program for publication without any further delay. Those who are expected to read papers or preach sermons should have sufficient time to make thorough preparation. In fact these papers and sermons, the papers especially, should be prepared with great care and always with something practical in view. To do this requires time and labor.

AT one of the sessions of the Pennsylvania Conference three very practical questions were discussed: 1. What not to bring into our conference. 2. What to bring into our conference. 3. What to take out of our conference. The answer to the third one depends entirely on the first and second. We submit these three questions to all who expect to attend our coming National Conference. There is one person that should always remain at home; his name is self; the one to take with you is Christ.

PLEASE read what Brother Haskins has to say in his "Notes from Johnstown" touching the National Conference. The whole church is interested in this matter, and we are pleased to learn that the pastor of the Johnstown church and his people
